Introduction

ProofStuff is a web application that allows your company to manage proof generation, approval, and follow up processes for your customers.

“Proofs” are images or documents that you want your customer to approve or decline. They are uploaded from within OnSite and your customers are presented with a consistent professional interface where they can view the proof using standard web browsers.

Some common usage examples include:

- You have finalized a new design for your customer and need the customer’s final approval before proceeding with production.
- You are working on a new design concept for a customer and want them to choose between several different options.
- You want your customer to “sign off” on the order approval for a sales order. This can take the place of the traditional signed and faxed order approval.
- You want your customer to “sign off” on shipping instructions or other pertinent details as they relate to a sales order.

Benefits

- Organized and Streamlined

ProofStuff is completely integrated with your OnSite system, meaning all employees can see art and order approval details at any time. Proofs are linked to Orders or Designs allowing customer service reps and artists instant access to information on this critical aspect of order processing.

- Automated Follow Up

ProofStuff has automated email reminders that are sent to your customers at intervals that you select.

- Consistent and Professional Presentation

Your customers will be presented with a consistent and professional approval process complete with your branding and customized instructions.

- Centralized Tracking

All data for the approval process are stored and viewable. This includes dates, times, digital approval “signature” and IP addresses of approving parties.

How It Works

Below is an overview of how the ProofStuff.com proofing process works. For more details on setting up and using ProofStuff, view the training videos available on www.ShopWorksCentral.com.

Step 1 – Generate your Proof From OnSite

Proofs are uploaded to ProofStuff.com from your OnSite 7 system.

Remember that ProofStuff.com is fully integrated with your OnSite 7 system. This means Proof status and details can be viewed and accessed directly from OnSite 7 and all data is live and real-time.

Step 2 – Send Your Customer an Email

Once proofs have been created, send an email to your customer with links to view the proofs.

You have the option to send one email per proof or you can send a single email with all the proofs in it (like shown above).

Step 3 – Customer Views The Proof

Once your customer receives their email they click on the link(s) to see a proof.

Customers can view all related Proofs for this sales order or see a history of when things were done.

You've chosen:
Once an item is selected the customer will accept or decline and explain what needs to be changed.

Step 4 – Customer Reminders

You can setup your ProofStuff.com website to send customers email “reminders” to approve their proof.

Send up to 3 reminders per proof. You control when they are sent to the customer. These reminders are then sent automatically by the ProofStuff.com website.

Customize the contents of each reminder email.

Would you like to send reminder emails?

Email 1 - Send  hour(s) after proof is created.

Subject:

B I U | 3 (12pt) | ↶ ↷

Please remember to approve (or reject) this proof. Failure to do so in a timely manner will prevent us from being able to produce your job on time.

If you have any questions, please contact customer service at 800-410-0200.

Email 2 - Send  hour(s) after proof is created.

Subject:

B I U | 3 (12pt) | ↶ ↷

This is our second request.

Please remember to approve (or reject) this proof. Failure to do so in a timely manner will prevent us from being able to produce your job on time.

Email 3 - Send  hour(s) after proof is created.

Subject:

B I U | 3 (12pt) | ↶ ↷

This is your final reminder.

Step 5 – Customer Response

When a customer approves or declines a proof you are sent an (optional) email notifying you. In addition, you can see the changes to the proof real-time in your OnSite system.

The screenshot displays the ProofStuff.com interface for order 7308, 'Edmund's Landscaping Services'. The 'Proofs' tab is active, showing a table with the following data:

Proof Name	Proof Message	Customer Feedback	Date Created	Type
Full Front		Please add text to bottom of logo.	10/10/11	Rejected
Full Back			10/10/11	Open

Red arrows point from a callout box to the 'Rejected' status and the 'Customer Feedback' column. The callout box contains the text: 'See proof status in your OnSite system along with customer feedback made when accepting or declining a proof.'

On the right side of the interface, the 'Order Number' is 2299. The 'Date Order Placed' is 10/7/11, and the 'Req. Ship Date' is 10/22/11. The 'Sales Status' and 'Order Status' sections are also visible.

NOTE: This is just an overview of the ProofStuff.com website and how it works. For a more detailed look please contact ShopWorks for a personalized demo or view the ProofStuff.com training videos available on www.shopworkscentral.com.

Features

- ProofStuff.com is a hosted service. You do not need to setup any websites or domain names to use it.
- Generate customer proofs from your OnSite system. Proofs are images, documents, or ShopWorks forms. See “Supported File Types” section of this document for more details.
- Generate approval email for customer utilizing dynamic text and stock forms you store in your OnSite 7 system.
- Customize how proofs look when a customer views them. This includes logo, colors and stock text that is presented.
- Choice of zoom methods when a customer views an image proof.
- Logging for when customer is sent, approves, or declines a proof gives you complete timetable “accountability” on each proof.
- System stores email address, person name, and IP address when a proof is approved or declined.
- Email confirmations are sent to your employees when a proof is approved or declined.
- ProofStuff.com sends up to 3 customizable email reminders for proofs that are open, and have not been approved or declined.
- “Retire” process allows you to remove proofs from the system that are no longer relevant to a sales order or design.
- ProofStuff.com Admin Console allows you to administer your site and see open proofs from any web browser and internet connection.
